Heritage Quest Genealogy Database Has New Interface

The Heritage Quest genealogy database now has a new interface powered by Ancestry giving it a look and feel similar to Ancestry. Search the U.S. census records (1790-1940), books, directories, Revolutionary War pension files, the African American Freedman's Bank records (1865-1874), and an index of genealogy and local history articles (1800-2009). Also included are research tips and interactive census maps.

Kearney Public Library offers this database free to anyone with an internet connection and the library-supplied login. Access the database at www.kearneylib.org. Call 308-233-3256 for questions or the login information.
