Robinsons in Concert at Kearney Public Library on St. Patrick's Day!

Kearney Public Library proudly presents a concert featuring Dana and Susan Robinson. The concert will be on Tuesday, March 17 beginning at 7:00 p.m. From performing at Carnegie Hall to being featured in Ken Burn's PBS documentaries, such as "The National Parks," and "The Dust Bowl," Dana and Susan have been playing their trademark brand of "new-time, old-time music" for nearly twenty years.

While playing the fiddle, guitar, banjo, and mandolin they bring fresh harmonies and impeccable craftsmanship to their performances, drawing the listener close to the heart of Appalachia and beyond. Dana's original songs reflect the essence of rural America and their concerts are virtual road-trips across North America.

Dana and Susan Robinson's newest CD "American Hornpipe" has been described as, "...a melting pot of Appalachian, British, and African influences, full of earthy grooves, elegant melodies, stories of heroes, ne'er do-well's, and cautionary tales."

This program is free and open to the public. The Kearney Public Library is located at 2020 1st Avenue, Kearney, NE.
