Concert and Writing Workshop Events with Kerry

Kearney Public Library welcomes the return of singer/songwriter and storyteller Kerry Grombacher at 7:00 p.m., Thursday, September 10! In the spirit of the troubadours and balladeers of old, Kerry's songs paint vivid portraits and tell fascinating stories, all set in the landscape that stretches from New Orleans to the desert southwest and north to the Hi-Line of Montana. Kerry plays guitar and mandolin and writes and performs contemporary western and folk songs. You'll find him at Cowboy Poetry Gatherings and Folk Music Festivals, singing his songs, playing mandolin as a sideman, and picking in the jam sessions and around the campfires until the last song is sung. Join us for this free performance at the Kearney Public Library, 2020 1st Avenue, Kearney, NE.

Then Kerry Grombacher returns Friday, September 11 for “Jump Start Your Creativity!” a free writing workshop. Are you a writer, or a teacher or student – of poetry, songs, fiction or non-fiction – who wants to sharpen your ability to describe scenes and to tell stories? Kerry Grombacher, a songwriter and music educator based in New Orleans, offers a workshop to help you “Jump Start Your Creativity.” This workshop will help you find inspiration for a broad range of creative writing and learn to be a better observer and a more expressive writer. The event will be held on Friday, September 11 from Noon until 2:30 p.m. Lunch will be provided; however, pre-registration is required by Wednesday, September 9. This workshop is free. To pre-register please call 308-233-3282 or e-mail slindner@kearneygov.org.
