Kearney Public Library Offers Class on Online Historic Kearney Hub Newspapers

Kearney Public Library has digitized the Kearney Hub newspapers spanning 1888 to 1957. This digitized collection is searchable by keyword and/or date and is accessible to anyone with an internet connection. A class on accessing and using these online newspapers will be offered on September 21 at 6:30 p.m. in the Library's Technology Learning Center Classroom on the lower level. Class size is limited to 15, with registration required. Basic computer skills and a library card in good standing are required.

For more information or to register, call the Kearney Public Library's Reference Desk at 308-233-3256 or stop in at the Library.
