Live Streaming of Council and Planning Commission Meetings

The City of Kearney announces the launch of our new online City Council streaming video web feature. Citizens can now view LIVE streaming video of the meetings on the City's website and easily access indexed videos of past City Council meetings. Viewers can quickly jump to any topic through index points to review only the information that is important to them.

This new service will be available Tuesday, September 22, with the City Council meeting starting at 5:30 p.m. Citizens will be able to view Planning Commission meetings beginning October 16, at 9:00 a.m.

We are proud to offer this new online feature that can be viewed on most mobile devices. Transparency is important to the City of Kearney and providing citizens a convenient portal to learn about policy decisions that affect their lives and see how their tax dollars are being spent is essential.

For more information about live streaming or Council meetings, please contact Michaëlle Trembly, City Clerk, at (308) 233-3216.
