Restore Your Old Photos at Kearney Public Library

If you have old photos that are wrinkled, faded, scratched, or damaged, the Kearney Public Library can help you restore them so they look almost as good as new. Register and bring no more than two photos to Kearney Public Library by Friday, February 5. The Library will scan them to a personal flash drive that we provide

On Tuesday, February 16 meet in the Library's Technology Learning Center at 10:00 a.m. to learn how to use a photo editing program to restore your photos. Four additional work sessions will be held for anyone who needs to continue working to restore their photos to their satisfaction. Class size is limited to 15, with registration, basic computer skills, and a KPL library card required. Original photos will be returned during class on February 16.

- February 5 – deadline to register and submit photos
- February 16 at 10:00 a.m. – photo editing class
- February 17 and 23 at 2:00 p.m. – optional work sessions
- February 23 and 24 at 10:00 a.m. – optional work sessions
