Humanities Nebraska Speaker to Appear at the Peterson Senior Activity Center

Paul Siebert will present a program “Echoes of an Era” on Wednesday, April 13 at 1:00 p.m. at the Peterson Senior Activity Center. This presentation is made possible by the Nebraska Humanities Council, the Nebraska Cultural Endowment and the Peterson Senior Activity Center as part of the NHC Speakers Bureau.

For over 30 years, Paul Siebert’s quality blend of live Family Entertainment has delighted thousands with his unique style and vast repertoire. A multi acoustic instrumentalist, singer/songwriter, Paul is equally at home on concert stage, elementary school classroom, living history events, corporate dinners, senior communities, weddings or just an evening around the campfire with friends. Paul features the Hammer Dulcimer, guitar, banjo, button accordion plus numerous instruments along with vocals, specializing in strolling. “Echoes of an Era”, is a musical living history program of a family’s journey from Russia to Nebraska in the 1870’s. Using original and period music with up to seven different acoustic instruments, storytelling, personal family history, period costume, and extensive knowledge on the subject of Blacksmithing/metallurgy, Paul presents an interactive entertaining program.

The Peterson Senior Activity Center is located at 2020 West 11th Street, Kearney, NE.
