CITY OF KEARNEY PRESS RELEASE For Immediate Release

Issued Date: April 13, 2016

Point of Contact: Scott Hayden, Park & Recreation Director, 308-233-3228

Kearney Water Trail Ribbon Cutting Ceremony

The City of Kearney will be conducting a Ribbon Cutting ceremony on Monday, April 18, at 5:30 p.m., to celebrate the completion of the new water trail. The celebration will take place at the entrance landing located along the NPPD canal in the northeast corner of Yanney Park. Those attending should park in the Peterson Senior Activity Center parking lot.

Following the Ribbon Cutting, the Kearney Whitewater Association has invited people to bring their kayaks, paddles, and personal floatation devices in order participate in a group float. The water trail is 2.3 miles in length with the exit landing located along Turkey Creek just off Central Avenue behind Midway Chrysler-Jeep-Dodge. Please contact the Park and Recreation Department at 308-233-3228 if you need further information.
