Point of Contact: Christine Walsh, Assistant Library Director, 308-233-3283

Beki Hemingway and Randy Kerkman in Concert at Kearney Public Library

Join us at Kearney Public Library for an evening of music with the acoustic duo of Beki Hemingway and her husband guitarist/producer Randy Kerkman on Monday, April 25 at 7:00 p.m. Beki Hemingway is a singer/songwriter based first and currently in Denver, with stops in Chicago, Nashville, and Glasgow along the way, and she writes and sings some of the best songs you've never heard.

Her long and varied career has found her playing in several bands, including hysterical punkers This Train, as well as singing live and studio backup vocals on everything from industrial to inspirational music in Chicago. She went solo in 1997. She has released 6 CDs and has shared the stage as an opener for such acts as Shawn Colvin, Aimee Mann, Pierce Pettis, Lowen & Navarro, and Vigilantes of Love.

Join us at the Kearney Public Library for an evening of music at this free program.
