Jack and Kitty Concert for Youth at Kearney Public Library

Minneapolis-based Jack and Kitty Norton will be performing at the Kearney Public Library on Tuesday, May 24 at 7:00 p.m. Jack and Kitty are one of the most in-demand musical acts for children. Their understanding of younger audiences comes from the years Jack and Kitty spent as co-creators and co-stars of a hit preschool kid's television series, which currently airs on over 150 PBS member stations nationwide and in 175 countries worldwide via the AFN Family Network. Nominated for six Emmy Awards, an average of 5 million families see Jack and Kitty's work for youngsters every day. Join us for a refreshing blend of organic vaudeville folk for kids! This event is geared for ages 0-6 and their grown-ups; however, all ages are welcome to attend.
