National Geographic Database Class at Kearney Public Library

The National Geographic Virtual Library database brings together a complete archive of the National Geographic magazines, from 1888 to the current issue, along with a cross-searchable collection of National Geographic books, maps, images and videos. Learn how to access and use this database from anywhere you have an internet connection at a free class at the Kearney Public Library on Monday, November 7, 2016 at 6:30 p.m. Class will be held in the Library's Technology Learning Center on the lower level, with class size limited to 15. Pre-registration, basic computer skills and your library card are required. For more information or to register, call the library's reference desk at 233-3256 or stop in at the library.
