Political Campaign Yard Sign Thefts

Over the past several days the Kearney Police Department has taken multiple theft reports of political campaign signs from residential yards throughout Kearney. We are actively investigating these thefts and looking for any information on those responsible. Anyone taking a sign without permission could be subject to criminal charges.

During this election season, the Kearney Police Department would like to remind our community to be respectful of your neighbor's property and the individual right to express support of political candidates. Should you believe a sign is causing a vision obstruction or it is illegally placed, contact our non-emergency number and a Community Services Officer will assist.

If you have information about these cases, please contact the Kearney Police Department at (308) 237-2104, Buffalo County Crimestoppers at (308)237-3424, or you can submit your tip using the See it, Say it, Send it App.
